Jesus said to his disciples:

"I have much more to tell you, but now it would be too much for you to bear. When, however, the Spirit comes, who reveals the truth about God, he will lead you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own authority, but he will speak of what he hears and will tell you of things to come. He will give me glory, because he will take what I say and tell it to you. All that my Father has is mine; that is why I said that the Spirit will take what I give him and tell it to you."

(Gospel passage taken from Good News Translation® and used with permission, see details below)*

What do you remember from today's reading?

This story is part of Jesus' farewell conversation to the disciples before he dies on the cross.

Jesus says to the disciples that after he has gone, the Holy Spirit will guide them. The Holy Spirit will be their teacher and will speak to them just as Jesus did when he was alive and with them. The Holy Spirit will show the disciples what they must do and what they must say in Jesus' name.

Who teaches you and guides you? Teachers, parents, friends and family all teach us and guide us. And the Holy Spirit is there to guide us too.

There is only one God. But God is made up of three persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. This is what we call the Trinity. Trinity means three.

Can you think of a way that we are reminded of the Trinity every time we pray? (Through the Sign of the Cross.)

This relationship of the Father, Son and Spirit is a relationship where all are together but each person is also different. The Father created the world and everything in it and sent his only Son Jesus to live among us here on earth. Jesus came to help us to know the Father, to teach us how to live and to forgive our sins. When he returned to heaven, he sent the Holy Spirit to give us courage, to guide us in the right path and to bring us faith, hope, joy and peace.

This is a bit like our families – we might have parents, sisters and brothers, aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins and grandparents. Whatever the size of our family, we know there are different people in our family who have different relationships and jobs, but we are still only one family with them. We are all connected through our family bond.

Who do you live with? Do you live with lots of people or just a few? Do all your family live close by or are they spread far apart?

We are also part of one big global family that includes everyone in the world. We are all God's children. We are all special, and even though we are all different, we are all equally important. We are all called to care for one another and for the earth that we live in. But how we do this depends on who we are and our own gifts.

We believe that Jesus' promise to the disciples – that the Holy Spirit would be with them and guide them – is still true for all of us today and for all people after us. The Holy Spirit can guide us to do what is right and to use our talents in the best way to help others.

Can you listen to the Holy Spirit in the coming week, and see how the Spirit guides you, especially in the way you treat those you live with and the members of our global family throughout the world?

Let us all do our best this week to listen to and love God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and try to live as God asks us to.
